

More & Better Discipleship Covenant

Introductions

- General information about one another: age, place of upbringing, family, work, etc.
- General background on relationship with Jesus Christ. How you came to know the Lord.
- Share “your story”

Expectations

- What do you hope to gain from our time together?
- Review character, faith and ministry goals
- Discipleship includes multiplication (apply and multiply)
- Requires a commitment

Ground Rules

- Purposeful: We are not getting together just to chat. This intentional pairing is for the purpose of helping each other grow in relationship with Jesus Christ and to see this lived out in our day-to-day lives.
- Structured: We are committing to a structured relationship where we will meet regularly and we will be on time.
- Mutual: We are in this relationship together – it is reciprocal. My job is to provide positive support, encouragement, accountability and challenge – not to give advice.
- Authentic: We will be open and honest with each other about the things we are working on, and deal with it honestly when something is not working.
- Accountable: When we choose to commit to something, we will follow through. We want to be held accountable
- Discrete: What we talk about stays between us.
- Under Authority: If we are not sure whether our goals, action steps or relationships are appropriate, we will take it to Scripture first and then to a member of the LCC pastoral staff.

Logistics:

1. We will meet: _____
2. We are agreeing to meet together for _____ months, then we will reevaluate.
3. Our regular meeting place and time will be: _____
4. Both of our contact information: _____

Covenant:

We agree to build a strong, supportive, mutual relationship that will help us grow in Christ, to accomplish important goals, and to help us to become more like Jesus. We are in this relationship because we want it. We realize that this requires a commitment, even if life’s circumstances change and difficulties arise, and we will commit to making this a priority. If our times together become inconsistent or unproductive, we will choose to refocus, evaluate, and recommit to the relationship.
