Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first... But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. (John 20:1-4, 11 ESV)

...And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” (John 20:12-15)

Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”—and that he had said these things to her. (John 20:16-18)

What’s happening with the Lighthouse family...

Because relationship with one another is at the core of being a disciple of Christ, we invite you to find community and experience spiritual transformation through LCC’s groups, classes, events, and service opportunities.

Tuesday Nights at LCC: Tuesday nights April 19 - June 13 will feature a parenting study called Art of Parenting for anyone in any type of parenting role: parents, foster parents, grandparents, all types of guardians. Along with this study for adults, kids 0-18 years will have the opportunity to be involved in focus groups including Bible Builds (4 years - 4th graders), Ignite (5th graders), and Youth Group (6th-12th graders). Parents of kids attending Bible Builds must be participating in Art of Parenting or volunteering on Tuesday nights. Limited childcare for little ones 0-4 years is available. For all the details and links to register for any or all of these activities, visit www.lighthousehome.org/tuesday-night. Registration is required for Art of Parenting, Bible Builds, and childcare.

Family Support Training - Serving Children Through Challenges: Our first training in this three-part series features a panel presentation focused on the following topics: children experiencing trauma, loss, and grief, emotional and mental special needs, physical and development challenges, and neurodivergent profiles. All KM2 volunteers and everyone who works with kids is invited. Saturday, April 23 from 9:30am-11:00am in Room 320 (Building 2). A continental breakfast will be served.
