Glorifying God Through Conflict • 1 Corinthians 10:31–11:1

31 So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, 33 just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved. 1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. (1 Corinthians 10:31–11:1 ESV)

Question: Do you view conflict as a good or a bad thing?

Negative Responses Within Conflict:

1. Peace-breaking

Attack responses: Goal is to bring as much pressure to bear on opponents as is necessary to defeat their claims and eliminate their opposition.

2. Peace-faking

Escape responses: Goal is to escape conflict at the expense of leaving it unresolved.

Question: To which negative response above do you most relate? Why?

Opportunity #1: Glorifying God in our conflict.

So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

Opportunity #2: Serving others through our conflict.

Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ... As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. (Galatians 6:2, 10)

Reflection questions while in conflict:
- How can I please and honor God in this situation?
- How can I bring praise to Jesus by showing that He has saved me and is changing me?

CHURCH-WIDE PRACTICE:

Fight to make a conscious decision to honor God through our conflicts this week.
