I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! For I myself am an Israelite... God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew... So I ask, did they stumble in order that they might fall? By no means! Rather, through their trespass, salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous. Now if their trespass means riches for the world, and if their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion mean! ... For just as you were at one time disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, so they too have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now receive mercy... Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! “For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?” “Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?” For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. (excerpts from Romans 11:1-36)

Big Takeaway #1:
God has not closed the door of salvation to Israel and welcomes all to Himself when faith and belief in Christ are present.

Big Takeaway #2:
God is shaping history for the sake of building a covenant family that represents every tribe, tongue, and nation in the earth.

Heart Change #1:
“God, challenge my tendency to neglect diversity.”
Practice: Invest in people who are not like you.

Heart Change #2:
“God, challenge my lack of humility.”
Practice: Regular affirmation of your imperfection.

Heart Change #3:
“God, challenge my tendency to reject others.”
Practice: See every moment in life through the lens of God’s gracious mercy.

What’s happening with the Lighthouse family...
Because relationship with one another is at the core of being a disciple of Christ, we invite you to find community and experience spiritual transformation through LCC’s groups, classes, events, and service opportunities.
