Clinging to the Hope That Sustains Us • Hebrews 10:23-25

Talk about one or two of the hopes and plans that you had which have been changed, or maybe even stopped, by the restrictions of this COVID-19 season.

What we want – what we need – is a hope that sustains us.

Our hope is anchored and secure in the finished work of Jesus Christ.

How can others encourage you to hold to this hope that sustains us?

What words or actions encourage you in your walk with God?

<sup>24</sup>And let us consider how we might stir one another up to love and good works, <sup>25</sup>not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Hebrews 10:24-25 (ESV)

What's happening with the LCC Family...

Monday, May 25, 2020: Memorial Day is dedicated to remembering those who died while in the military service of their country. On this day, even in a time of seemingly endless disparities, we all come together and pause to thank those who gave their lives for our freedom. We also honor the spouses, fathers, mothers, siblings, and friends of those who were lost in battle. They too have sacrificed greatly so that we might be and remain free. We give thanks to God always for all of you... 1 Thessalonians 1:2 (ESV)
